Examining Freedom of the Press

A series designed in partnership by the Avon Free Public Library, Avon Historical Society, and Avon Senior Center, with support from Avon High School. This program is joined with a grant from CT Humanities to commemorate the 200th anniversary of the Connecticut Constitutional Convention of 1818.

Programs funded by these two grants will run from June-December 2018.

Meet John Adams!

A dramatic portrayal by George Baker

Since 2008, George Baker has portrayed John Adams and his family to businesses, universities, libraries, national conventions and venues. He has been seen at the New-York Historical Society, the George H. W. Bush Presidential Library, the Harry S. Truman Presidential Library and the Dwight D. Eisenhower Presidential Library and has been featured on National Public Radio's weekend program, Studio 360.

Join us for his program, "John Adams and Thomas Jefferson, their historic relationship from the American Revolution to 1826, the 50th Anniversary of the United States."

All ages welcome! No registration required.
